

I am writing in response to the pending decision regarding Low Power FM. This decision was brought to my attention by K-LOVE. I listen to K-LOVE a couple of times a week. The services that K-LOVE performs in the local community is very important. They sponsor local events as well as providing a non-commercial source of listening entertainment. I would be very disappointed if commercial radio completely took over my local air waves.

Sincerely

Cheri Riddle